"TAKING CONTROL WITH OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH MEDIA"

TAYLOR MOORE Guest Speaker

Taylor Moore is an award-winning motivational speaker, drummer/percussionist, singer/songwriter and comedian from the South Side of Chicago. A graduate of the University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign, Taylor received her Bachelor's in Music Performance and Production. She is also a passionate advocate and practitioner of striving for personal excellence and the abstinence until marriage lifestyle.

Dubbed The Princess of Percussion, Taylor has played with a multitude of great musicians like smooth jazz icons Boney James, Shelia E., Patrice Rushen, gospel greats Marvin Winans and the late Andrae Crouch. The Princess of Percussion recently thrilled music lovers as she opened for Grammy Award-winning vocalist Cassandra Wilson at Martha's Vineyard.

Adding comedian to her already extensive resume, Taylor Moore has hosted weekly comedy jams sponsored by BET, ComicView and ComedyCentral in addition to working with world-class comedians like Terry Hodges, TK Kirkland and Smokey Suarez, just to name a few.

Moore is definitely a leader for this

DANCE WORKSHOP

MARION ARCHER

Marion Archer dreamed of the The Revelators Dance Troupe over 30 years ago after seeing the Alvin Ailey Dance Theater of Harlem performance. Her passion for dance began at Washington Junior HS and then moved to the Boys and Girls Club of Mt. Vernon, which remains the home base for the dance troupe. Although the original premise of the dance troupe was spiritually based, the company has evolved to include various dance forms such as African, tap and dances from other countries and cultures. She teaches the art of communication through dance at Jazz Co in Eastchester High Schools and Tuckahoe High School.
