

I should of waited

By:

Verse 1:

Let me tell you a story
I made a big big big mistake
Shouldn't have let it reach so far
Now I got to live with this mistake
Oh I don't know what to do
I have lost my way
It feels like I can't escape from a nightmare

Chorus:

Love has a twist
That can't be missed
Blind your eyes from reality
Lying to your heart think it's meant to be
If I only knew it was a dream
Wasn't really meant to be
I should of wait till I'm ready
Than Forcing myself to be like everybody

Verse 2:

If I only knew it was temporary
I wouldn't force it to the extreme
I would of lay back and watch everybody
I wouldn't take it up at that kind of age
If I only knew better
Then I would of did much better
But now it's done
It's time to think much better
Ooooooo
Now it's time to refresh from the past

Chorus:

Love has a twist
That can't be missed
Blind your eyes from reality
Lying to your heart think it's meant to be
If I only knew it was a dream
Wasn't really meant to be

I should of wait till I'm ready
Than Forcing myself to be like everybody

Bridge:

Oooooo I should of waited
Till i can manage it
Not so easy no more
Till my heart is cured
Now I can search and find myself
Never look back for anyone else

Chorus:

Love has a twist
That can't be missed
Blind your eyes from reality
Lying to your heart think it's meant to be
If I only knew it was a dream
Wasn't really meant to be
I should of wait till I'm ready
Than Forcing myself to be like everybody
